Owen-2-7B Instruct

Based on the structured data provided, the Khotan Mosque is indeed located in China, and it was completed in 1870. However, the data does not specify the exact location within China as "Khotan, Xinjiang." Since Khotan is a city in Xinjiang, it can be inferred that the mosque is located in Xinjiang, China. However, the data does not explicitly state "Khotan" as part of the location.

A: NEI

GPT-40-turbo

From the structured data provided, it is clear that the Khotan Mosque was completed in 1870 and is located in China. However, the data does not specify that the mosque is located in Khotan, Xinjiang. While it might be inferred from the name "Khotan Mosque" that it is located in Khotan, Xinjiang, the data does not explicitly confirm this location. Therefore, taking into account the explicit information given in the data, we can only confirm the completion year and the country, but not the specific location within China.
