Grounded Video Question Answering

Watch the video carefully with the question '{query}' in mind and find the clip that

- contains the answer. Provide your analysis of the clip that supports your answer and finally provide the answer itself.
- Identify the clip in the video that helps answer the question '{query}' and provide the answer.

 Given a video and a question '{query}', find the clip in the video that helps answer
 - Given a video and a question '{query}', find the clip in the video that helps answer the question, tell me how you find the answer in the clip, and finally provide the answer.
- Localize the clip in the video that contains the context needed to answer the question '{query}', navigate through the clip and provide the answer to the question.
- question.
 Watch the video, find the clip that contains the answer to the question '{query}', analyze the clip and provide the answer.

Densely capture all the clips that construct the storyline of the video. For each clip, provide a detailed description and then summarize it briefly.

Grounded Video Question Answering

- Densely list all the events in the video. For each event, provide a detailed description and then summarize it briefly.
- Densely identify all the events in the video. For each event, provide a detailed description and then summarize it briefly.
- description and then summarize it briefly.

 Densely summarize the video by focusing on the major events. For each event,
- provide a detailed description and then summarize it briefly.
 Densely identify the clips that depict the major events in the video. For each clip, provide a detailed description and then summarize it briefly."